Introduction and course objectives

International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) have been developing rapidly in recent years and a number of changes have been introduced. In this workshop we will use published financial statements to revise some of the key principles, standards and practices which underpin the practical application of IFRS.

Having attended the workshop delegates will be able to read and interpret IFRS accounts and identify the key areas for further investigation.

Recommended Delegates

This workshop is for preparers and auditors of financial statements prepared under IFRS. Delegates should have a working knowledge of IFRS.

Key Content

- The form and content of IFRS financial statements
- The fundamental concepts
